We Are Thankful . . .

for the studies that have made us more human,
for the influences that have made us more spiritual,
for the graces that have made us more divine . . . . .

Studies

The traditional Jesuit College curriculum, presented orderly and consistently in the classroom, gave us our foundation and fundamental framework. The hands are those of our patient and devoted teachers. We realize now that four years is all too brief . . .

The Motley Editorial Board: Bill Dean, Dick Callahan, Editor Joe Degnan, and Eugene Woods.

THE MOTLEY

Founded in 1930 as The Spring Hill Quarterly, the Motley is the only quarterly that comes out twice a year. The name is based on the fact that the contributors are a motley crew, and on Shakespeare's quote in "As You Like It", O noble fool! A worthy fool! Motley's the only wear.

Father Franklin Murray is the moderator.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council emerged from an experimental stage to a permanent organization in 1928. It acts as the student governing board, directing and supervising campus activities, class and other elections, social events, celebrations, and student customs. Under the president, George Barrett, it coordinates all the campus organizations. The members are duly elected class and organizational representatives. The Moderator is Father William J. Our character grew apace in athletic competition. The hands are those of our Athletic Directors, but also those of our fellow men. In friendly competition and cooperation we learned virtues most important for life. Still more vital, we discovered the holes and flaws in our make-up: and if we were wise we plugged and repaired . . .

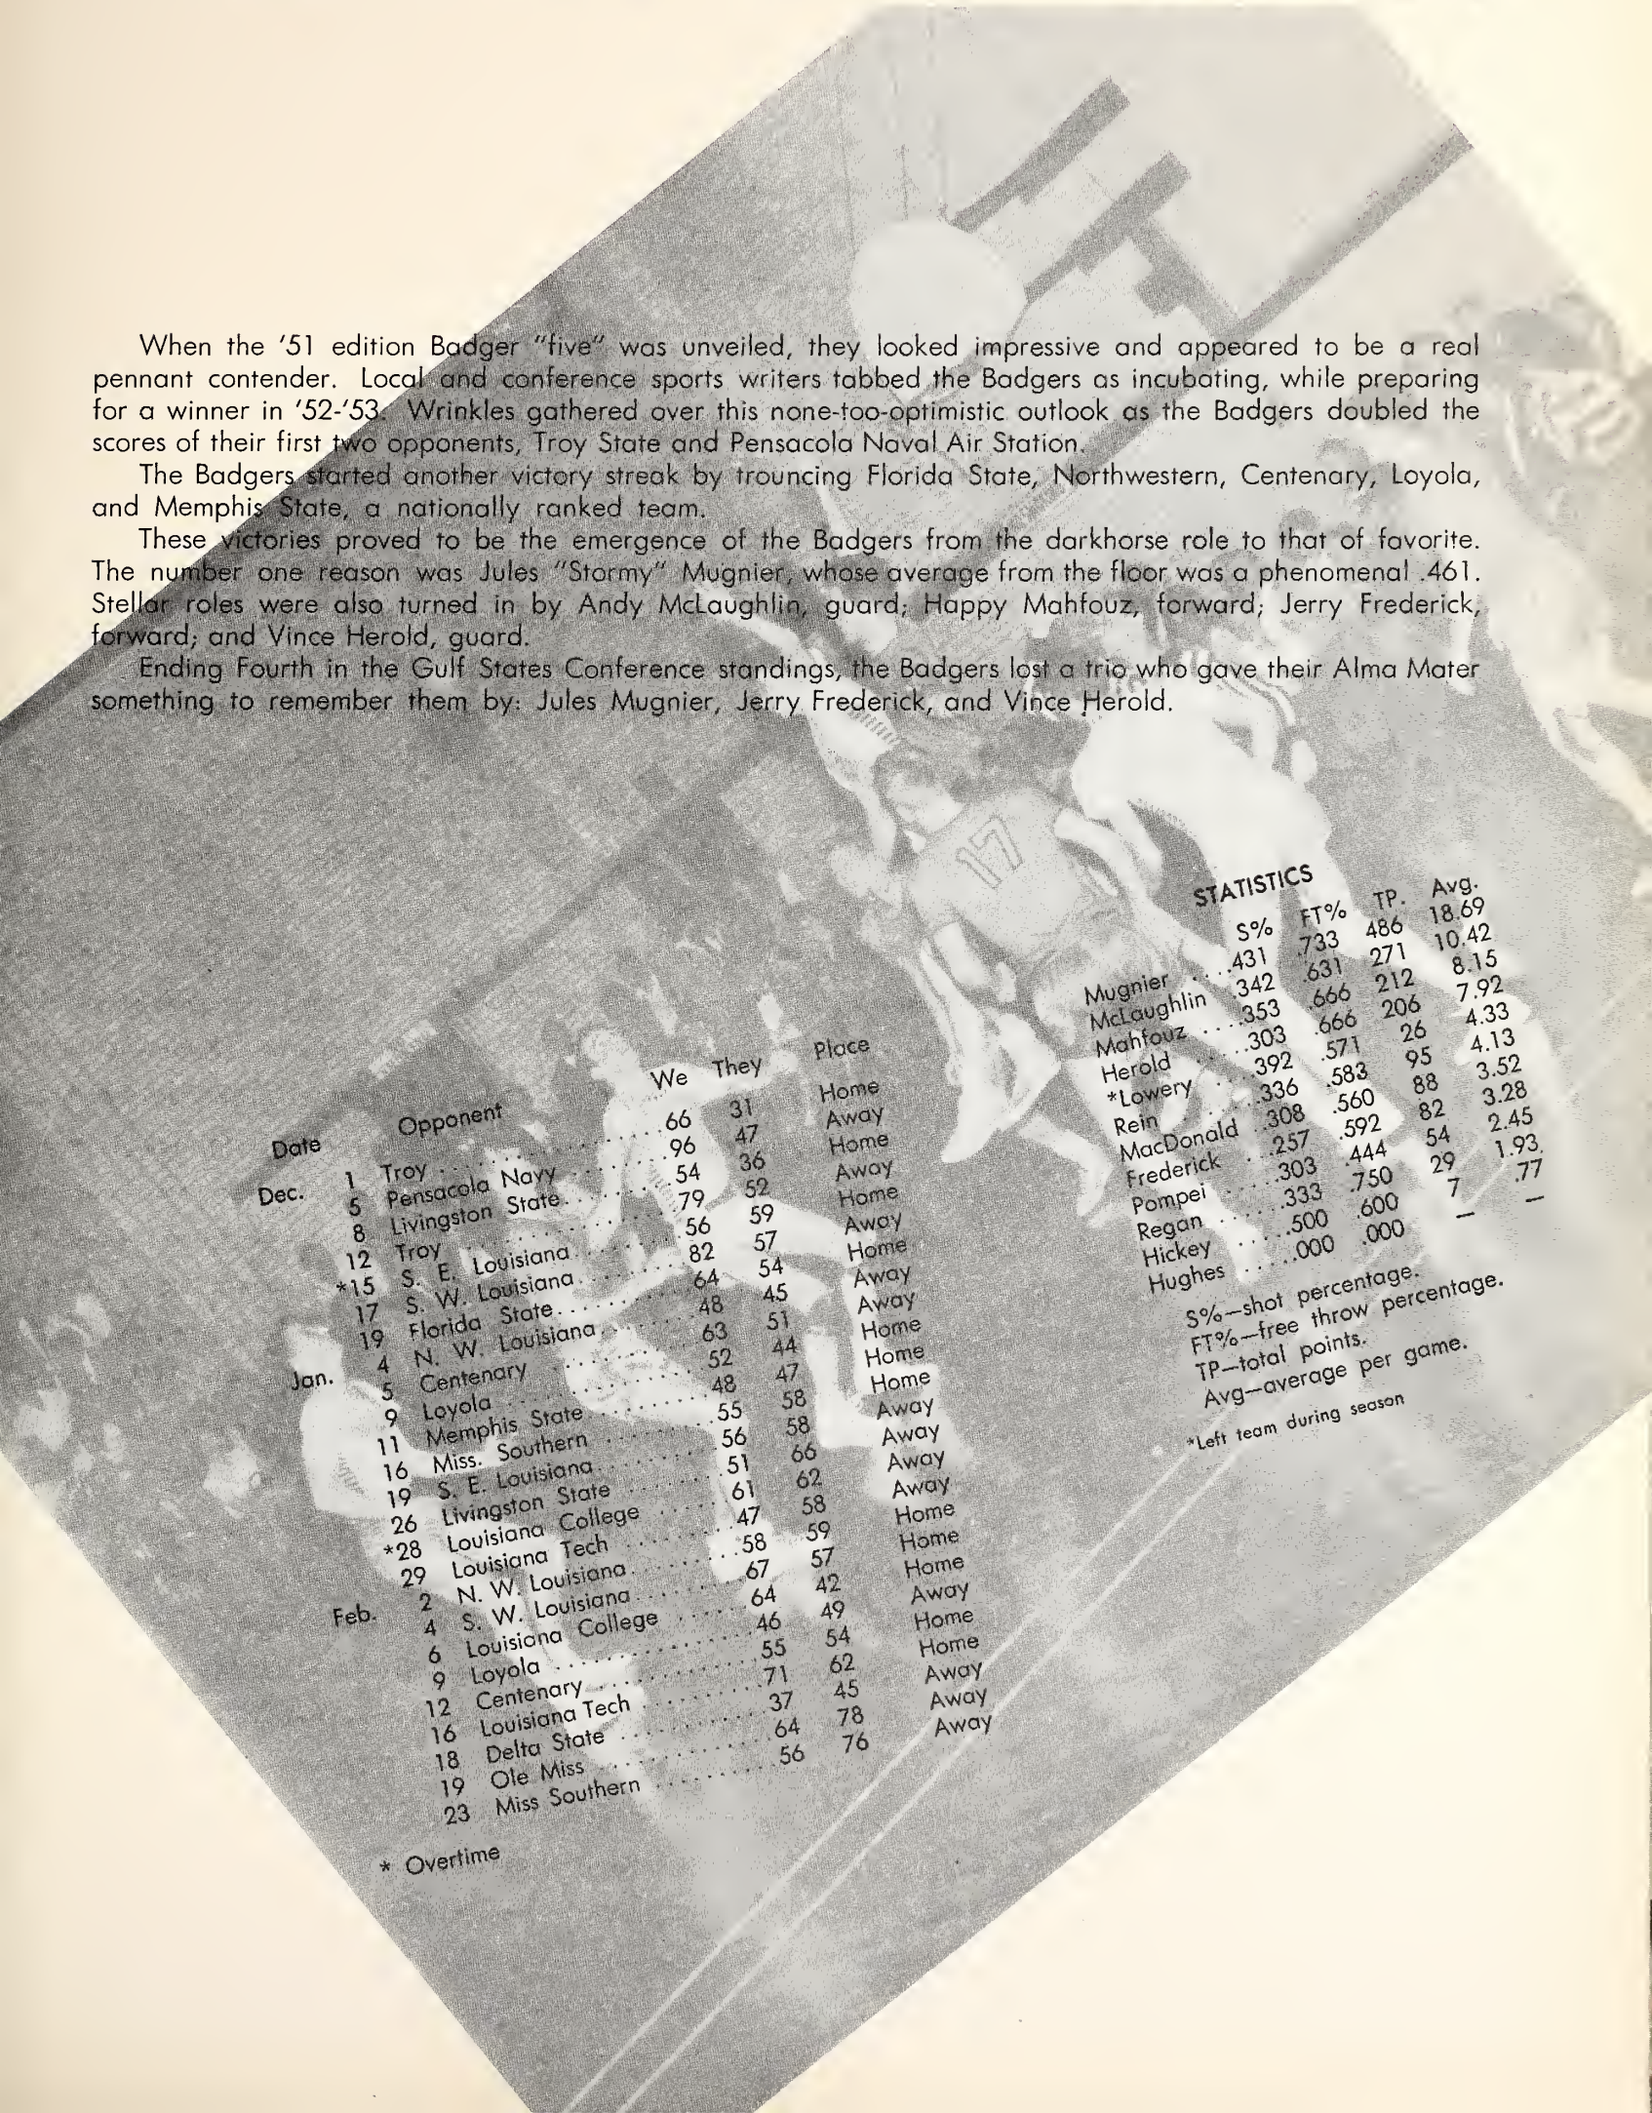
BADGERS...

...RETAIN B. B. SUCESS



When the '51 edition Badger "five" was unveiled, they looked impressive and appeared to be a real pennant contender. Local and conference sports writers tabbed the Badgers as incubating, while preparing for a winner in '52-'53. Wrinkles gathered over this none-too-optimistic outlook as the Badgers doubled the scores of their first two opponents, Troy State and Pensacola Naval Air Station.

The Badgers started another victory streak by trouncing Florida State, Northwestern, Centenary, Loyola, and Memphis State, a nationally ranked team.

These victories proved to be the emergence of the Badgers from the darkhorse role to that of favorite. The number one reason was Jules "Stormy" Mugnier, whose average from the floor was a phenomenal .461. Stellar roles were also turned in by Andy McLaughlin, guard; Happy Mahfouz, forward; Jerry Frederick, forward; and Vince Herold, guard.

Ending Fourth in the Gulf States Conference standings, the Badgers lost a trio who gave their Alma Mater something to remember them by: Jules Mugnier, Jerry Frederick, and Vince Herold.

SHC TRIUMPHS MOBILE...

Andy McLoughlin (5) attempts a goal against Loyola in Mobile while Jerry Fredericks (12) comes up

Since 1948 the Badger fans have seen Jules Mugnier mould a fabulous athletic career at the Hill. Never once did his performance fail to measure up to the highest calibre of a true competitor and a Christian athlete. His conduct was edifying to the Hill whether in or out of uniform. The Hill has lost a great athlete and a great gentleman.

This year "Stormy" broke George Amsden's total single year output record ('46-'47) with 14 points to spare. In the Louisiana College game he swished for 30 points, the largest tallied in one night by a Hillman and his 4-year point total is by far the greatest of all Purple and Whiters. Twelfth man in the nation on rebounds, Mugnier has recently been drafted by the professional Boston Celtics.

SIX GAME STREAK AGAINST LOYOLA HALTED

1949-50: 45-42, 62-53
1950-51: 55-54, 65-63
1951-52: 52-44

This year saw the Badger "5" beat Loyola of the South, New Orleans, for the sixth consecutive time, but it also marked the first time in 4 years that Loyola beat the Hill. It was at the second game of the '48-'49 season that the Badgers won from their Jesuit neighbors from the Crescent City. They did just that up to January 9 of this year when they won, 52-44. On February 9, Loyola won 49-46.

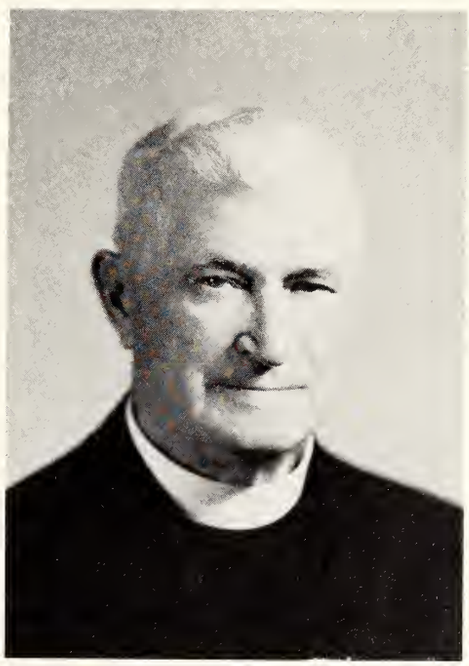
Coach Bill Gardiner's sixth year at the Hill was very similar to his first year, 1946, in that now, as then, he had to rebuild a team. This year he signed a new 5 year contract with Spring Hill with a "substantial increase in salary."

The 1951 Gulf States Conference Coach of the Year, Gardiner's basketball teams have never ended less than fifth in standings. Last year, the Badgers won the GSC championship.



Father Daniel Cronin, Athletic Director, popularly referred to as Father Dan, has taken a deep personal interest in all Hill sports for many years. Last year he was honored by being made athletic director. He hasn't missed a single basketball or baseball game.

Father Dan's primary job has been one of liaison between the College administration and the increasingly successful athletic department.

Coach Paul coaches the tennis team and the outstanding junior varsity basketball team. His 'Lil Badgers finished with a 9-5 record. His masterful scouting has enabled the Badger basketball "5" to win many a game. Besides he is Coach Gardiner's right arm in coaching the varsity basketball team.

This summer he will receive a Master's degree in psychology.

The Little Badgers, under Coach Paul Napolitano, finished a 14-game schedule with a 9-5 record. This year the "little" men played some of the toughest competition found in the Mobile area. Their most significant accomplishment was their double victory over the Wagner Plumbers, champs of the powerful City League.

SPLINTER'S SQUAD

Coach Bill Gardiner's '52 Diamond Nine fell one win shy of a 50-50 season with their record of seven wins and 8 losses in Gulf States Conference competition.

Three time All Conference Shortstop Jules Mugnier's brilliant play afield climaxed one of the most sensational athletic eras for a single athlete in the history of the Hill.

Eddie Sheffield, second sacker for the Purple and Whiters, was a bright spot .in the Badger lineup and figured most prominently in four of the Hill's seven victories.

Besides Mugnier and Sheffield, Regan, Ryan, and Wanucha cracked the select .300 circle. Bob MacDonald (.285) was second to Mugnier with runs batted in. He brought home 14 of the Hill's 77 runs.

Stan Wanucha (5-3) and his pitching saved Spring Hill from total humiliation on innumerable occasions.

As Happy Mahfauz starts a run (7), Bill Rein warms up for his crack at bat (3).

. . . PARS, BIRDIES, AND EAGLES

The Spring Hill College golf team, by virtue of their overwhelming defeat of Mississippi Southern, captured the Gulf States Conference Championship for the third time since the league began. Mississippi Southern, last year's kingpins, were toppled from the roost, thanks to the consistency of John Nolan, Louis Mulherin, Joe Burch, and Captain Tom Brennan, who again took low medalist honors.

Only two losses were registered, against Alabama and Eglin Field.

The tournament at Hattiesburg was the piece de resistance of the season. In the three day competition no team posted a serious threat to the commanding lead the team had already built. Brennan was in no way severely challenged in his bid for top honors and at the end of the match he received a foot high statuette, on which was an appropriate inscription.

This was the only championship team in the Gulf States Conference produced by Spring Hill.

TENNIS

Coach Paul Napolitano's tennis team failed to show an impressive win column, but the team did show great skill in subduing a number of their opponents. The top singles included Jack McCabe, Dick Connor, Neil Willemse, Jimmy Schwing, and Joe Clark. In the Gulf States Conference tournament, the Spring Hill tennis team won two while dropping seven to their opponents.

SPRING HILL

One of the year's outstanding achievement in tennis was the repaving of the courts through the courtesy of the Mobile Alumni Association. This improvement disposed of the use of downtown Milo Park for meets after heavy typical Mobile downpours. It also brightened the view from the South side of Mobile Hall, where the courts are located.

CHAMPIONS: CASANOVAS

Heralding the IM activities for the scholastic year, football is one of the roughest and most competitive sports in the program.

BASKETBALL

CHAMPIONS: PELICANS

The IM sport demanding the most ambition, basketball is played at odd hours because of the varsity and junior varsity's use of the gym. Nonetheless, great interest is shown. Most of the officials come from the ranks of the Badgers and 'Lil Badgers.

BOWLING

Bowling, perhaps the most popular intramural sport, is, at any rate, a year-round affair. Sunday morning, after Mass, the IM bowlers leave for King's Bowling Alleys for a morning of healthy competition and extra-curricular relaxation.

GOLF

The only intramural sport in which an individual, not a team, wins is golf. It is also restricted to Freshmen. The purpose of IM golf is to determine what Freshmen are most apt to make the Varsity Team. This year's winner was John Nolan, who startled not only the coach but also the Gulf States Conference with his fine golf.

CONGRATULATIONS

"I have the highest confidence that you will measure up to our expectations, if with the help of God's assisting grace you keep through the first hard years that lie ahead of you that unified Christian outlook on life that your teachers here taught you and that so many of you according to my limited observation have really assimilated as an habitual attitude.

"Men of 1952, in this matter there is no middle way for you, and you know it. You have so imbibed the basic truths of God's supreme claim upon you, the sacredness of His Law, the primacy of ethics over every other science that unless you lead a very sheltered life, you will never rest short of heroism or frustration."

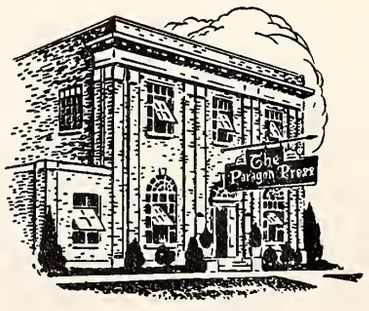
ON YOUR GRADUATION

Today we are printers of the yearbook of your school.

Tomorrow as you seek your future in the professions, industry and commerce we at Paragon hope to serve you with the essential Printing and Lithography you will need in the pursuit of your career.

Many of our best customers came to us through friendships formed around the annual planning table or from former grads like yourself who first saw our work in their annual.



With Best Wishes
